

Jo every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. He has made every thing beautiful in its time: also he has put eternity in men's hearts, so that no man can find out the work that God does from the beginning to the end. Ecclesiastes 3:1, 7-8, 11

Three months ago, I wrote to you about a word that I received from the Almighty in prayer concerning what the next few months had in store for us, so that His people might be able to pray and intercede more effectively in hopes that somehow, these events might be postponed or lessened. I shared how as I was sitting at my desk meditating on the many things that were taking place in this nation, I heard in my spirit the following:

"CROSSING THE RUBICON"

I shared with you that although I did not fully understand the full meaning of this expression that I had heard from the LORD, after taking time to research the meaning of that expression, I found out that the word Rubicon is a metaphor that means to pass a point of no return.

I also shared with you the fact that the word Rubicon had its origin back in January 49 BC, and it is connected to Julius Caesar crossing the Rubicon River which initiated the Roman Civil War, as his army marched across the shallow river. As I am sitting down writing the newsletter, this nation could very well be on the threshold of crossing its Rubicon. Once certain actions take place in the coming days or weeks, it may mark the point of no return. I say this with a heavy heart. Those are the stakes.

There are very dark evil forces in this nation who not only tried to steal the 2020 elections in order to take over this republic, but did it in coordination with foreign powers, threatening our national security. China, along with other nations like North Korea, Iran, Russia and others are complicit in what took place during this past elections. Some of them are 'supposedly friendly' nations that this country has helped.

Just like Julius Caesar back in 49 BC, President Trump today is surrounded by enemies and traitors, from without and within, who are looking for the opportunity to destroy not only him once he leaves office, but also those who aided him, his deplorable supporters and the Republic of the United States of America as we have known it. This is where we are at now. What happens within the next thirty days, will determine the future of America.

On January 10 of 49 BC, Roman General Julius Caesar defied the Roman Senate as he crossed the Rubicon River in Northern Italy, and threw the nation into a state of civil war. To this day, crossing the Rubicon means to undertake a decisive irrevocable action committing one to a specific course from which there is no turning back. Today, just like back then, we are seeing the culmination of a movement that has been swelling in this country for decades.

What might very well turn out to be an interesting prophetic parallel, this coming January (or before) could see President Donald Trump invoking the insurrection Act, which will allow him to use the militia, the armed forces or any other means that he might consider necessary, in order to suppress a rebellion, conspiracy or insurgency that was perpetrated against the citizens of this nation.

In addition, back in September 12, 2018 Trump signed an Executive Order on Imposing Certain Sanctions in the Event of Foreign Interference in a United States Election, which he may have already invoked on 12/3/2020, authorizing military response to cyber warfare. This Executive Order which very few have covered since the day it was signed, has far reaching implications; more than people realize.

In the last few days, there have been secret meetings in the White House, with some of President Trump's closest allies, as well as those he has around him. Rumors continue to abound that those close to him are not giving him good advice, instead discouraging him from taking any decisive action to stop the communist assault on this nation. Only time will tell what President Trump will do.

As we close, let's continue to pray for this nation. Pray for the Eternal One to protect our president, and give him the strength, courage and determination to make the right decision even though it may be a difficult one. May this Christmas season, bring you the peace that you are searching for, and usher in with it a miracle year that we are all waiting for. "Oh, that the glory of His presence might fill the earth." Shalom ~
