

A HUGE WAVE IS COMING!

By Regina Brumfield

A huge wave from some approaching event is going to be world life altering!

Dream: Early September 2015

In my dream, I remember talking to all these people in the know and everyone looked super worried. I was in all kinds of settings over the course of the dream. My grandmothers house, some military complex, a dining hall and a dock by the ocean. In the beginning we were in this military bunker and everyone was looking up at monitors and computer analysts were crunching numbers and scenarios. Then I asked the guy standing next to me who was in charge, "so what is the event?" he said we can't confirmed it yet". Then one of the computer analysts turned around very solemnly and said, "its confirmed".

The guy in charge looked at me and said, " it's a wave coming that will be a world life altering event and it is confirmed for September 23rd". (No year given)

I was in total numbing shock and felt all of the emotions like the situation was totally real in my dream. All the colors in this dream were smokey and lights were dim like backup power was being used. There were no bright colors and no bright light. Ominous and foreboding and impending event was on the expressions of everyone's faces there. Only Deafening silence. The only colors I saw were drab military green. Even civilians in tank tops wore drab military green.

Everyone in the know told me to not talk about it. Top secret information not for the masses. So I walked around looking at all these people and their children and I said somebody has to talk about this. So I broke rank with everyone, military heads of state and all the people gathered for this announcement and I started telling everyone. Then I saw the Saudi King in the bunker and I decided to talk to him. (Why the Saudi king?????) Others said I would never get close to him to talk. I had favor and sat down beside him and we talked. I basically said you have lived a life of evil and debauchery now do something to help people. As you will not escape this event because it is not man made it is judgement from Yahweh. I said you have the ships and fleet to help us if we just go on the boats and set sail. He was astounded by my audacity and said OK. So then he left to meet with his people.

I too had a significant size boat but didn't know how to sail it. Like the ark that I built here on this farm. But events started happening, time was getting short and people started gathering their things, knapsack size things and next thing you know the Saudi king came back and "said I will help do this for the people, come with me". Even evil money will be used to help people in the days to come. The wealth of the wicked laid up for the righteous. So I gathered the people and we started walking somewhere I suppose to board boats.

The impending doom was terrifying! I went to bed the night of this dream feeling impending doom and the coming of an ominous foreboding event where I was gripping my sheets with my fingernails trying to hold on to something secure because I knew the world was getting ready to turn upside down. Pole shift too? Not Sure.

There were Interpersonal dialogs with people interspersed with all of this in my dream as we were walking to board the boats. The trivia of peoples lives and stuff was stupid in light of this impending event. I was telling people get over it...forgive.... focus. People were stuck looping in their minds in past hurts. Including me. I had to snap out of it to grasp the hour we are living.

Here is an interpretation from a friend of mine:

The military complex, dining hall and grandmother's house represent all facets of life. Family's home, military/government officials/warriors and dining hall = people eating, drinking, social life. All will be impacted, from the ruling class, soldiers and families, and those who go about eating as if nothing is going to happen.

This rings of Esther, your role is to embrace the prophetic significance here. You should read and meditate on this book. That's the primary message in this dream. Whatever is going to take place, you have a role where you will have voice before decision makers. Saudi king represents the epitome of Babylon's corruption on the geo political stage, the Petro dollar, blood for oil, money, greed and fornication/exportation of porn. The Saudi's live the most lavish lifestyle on earth, they own Mercedes made of pure gold. It's beyond gaudy and mystery Babylon has funded this through corruption. It has all come home to roost, and the complicit nation in this global scheme will look to their partner in greed for assistance. In that day, all the kings of the earth will mourn, including the Saudi's because their military arm, their default protectorate, the USA will be able to do nothing for them.

Your ark, is your refuge and on a small scale you will take part in assisting others during the calamity. The primary ark, is Yeshua, in whom you will introduce others to their salvation. The physical ark will be a temporary safe haven of supplies, land or residence for a few or yourself.

It's quite remarkable how this screams Esther, I wonder what God has you preparing for. Spiritually you must prepare for your encounter w/ the king, to which that day when you look upon your KING He will say well done good and faithful servant. But the king on this earth our King will put you before should be interesting to see how He works it out. Fast, pray and meditate on Esther, you are going to have this role. It is no coincidence, Esther, is a deeply prophetic book, layered w/ symbolic parallels. Your people are not the Israelites/Jews but rather Gentiles/the Lost Tribes of Israel who are soon to come under persecution unlike has been seen before. Esther for the Gentiles/Lost Sheep of the House of Israel, in your refuge Yahweh has a big role for you to play. But we already knew that part. As you fast and meditate on Esther this will become much more clear. This is pretty amazing, God's communication through dreams always is!

NOTE:

In Early Sept 2015, when I had this dream, I had never heard about the Revelations 12 sign on September 23, 2017! I thought perhaps this dream was about the 4 blood moon tetrads and the Shemittah year culminating during the fall feasts of 2015.
