My mind could not wrap around the march 24th Dream & seemed like a cross between "Invasion of the Body Snatchers & Star Trek - Borg"

While I could not draw the images from my memory, I was given these WORDS to write of the DREAM!

THE WORDS

Dream of something like Bot-Self Aware technology that was introduced to the human body & began to take it over from the inside ---- PLUS +

Some grand "delusion" that began to influence the human mind & body from the outside -- A GRAND DELUSION so strong, all concern of Creator God, Jesus Christ or The Holy Spirit was completely LOST from human awareness!

LOST was the key WORD, these influenced people (from within & without) were LOST to the degree they no longer had any concern or desire to be Redeemed?

This LOSS of humanity & thinking was complete and they placed themselves past any point of SALVATION!

A complete GRAND DELUSION -- the final NAIL in the coffin of unsaved MANKIND (ADAM)
